Snakehead Fishing

-Taiwan-

Introduction

The Giant Snakehead is the largest among the snakehead species that can grow more than 1m long and 15kg in weight. This fearsome fighter has razor sharp teeth and powerful jaw that can snap any prey into half, with its ability to terminate any species in the dam the giant snakehead kills more fish than it can consume if anything gets into its way.

The giant snakehead is one of the main target species for sports anglers around South East Asia due to its nasty fight once they are hooked up and they will fight all the way till they land and often get snapped on most top water lures.

If you are looking for real massive Giant Snakehead you got the right place, going Taiwan with DMC Fishing will get you the largest Snakehead that can grow more than 10kg and it is constantly hooked up at anytime of the year due to the healthy eco system with no shortage of food source.
